

Course approval process for all new courses and course modifications¹.

¹Paideia II and special topics courses taught prior to Fall 2011 must follow the same process prior to being offered the third time.

Directed readings, directed research, directed study, independent study, and senior projects do not need faculty approval. See 'Application for special registration' under 'Forms' at registrar.luther.edu (link)

²'Special topics' courses number 139, 239, 339, or 439 may be used for experimental courses, or for courses taught by temporary faculty.

³For guidelines on general education consult the Luther catalog; for how the Academic Planning Committee will interpret these guidelines, follow this link.
