

FOUNDATION EDUCATION COURSES

- 1) Your first set of Education courses are called “foundation education” courses.
 - Usually potential Education majors and minors first take EDUC 185 during their first January-term at Luther College. If it is not possible to take EDUC 185, take EDUC 215 sophomore J-term.

- 2) Foundation courses include the following:
 - EDUC 220: “Educational Psychology”
 - EDUC 221: “The Diverse and Exceptional Learner”
 - Introductory Education Methods course for your anticipated primary licensure area:
 - EDUC 222: for anyone anticipating the Elementary Education major
 - EDUC 232: Music Education minors
 - EDUC 252: Secondary Education minors & Health Education minors
 - ART 222: Art Education minors

- 3) Keep the following in mind as you anticipate application to the TEP:
 - Your overall GPA must be 2.75.
 - You need to be alert to the mandatory meetings that will held.
 - The semester you take your first 200-level foundation course, you will purchase a Chalk & Wire account that you will use for your portfolios throughout the TEP. $125
 - You need to pass the “reading,” “writing,” and “math” subtests of either the Praxis Core or the MN NES.
