Legacy

"Life can only be understood backwards; but it must be lived forwards.“ —Søren Kierkegaard

Legacy is a program that invites us to think about the gift of life and how we want to be remembered. Singers in Collegiate Chorale were asked to write a response to the question: "If you had to write one sentence that would be written about you one hundred years from now, what would it say?" You will hear some of their responses interspersed throughout the concert.

The Luther College Mission Statement includes the statement that “As people of all backgrounds, we embrace diversity and challenge one another to learn in community, to discern our callings, and to serve with distinction for the common good.” This concert program is a musical journey that celebrates the values of inclusivity, community, and serving on behalf of the common good.

We include works from J.S. Bach and F. Melius Christiansen, drawing upon the rich Lutheran choral tradition; we journey through music by South African arranger Michael Barrett, African American spiritual arranger Stacey Gibbs, and a Caldwell and Ivory setting that includes American sign language. We dedicate “Glory,” from the movie Selma, as performed by John Legend and rap artist Common, to the Luther College Black Student Union, which celebrates its 50th anniversary this year.

Collegiate Chorale honors the languages, traditions, and experiences of the people for whom this music was written and strives to advocate for communities that have been underrepresented and discriminated against for simply being who they are. It is through celebrating and honoring all God’s people that we will leave our legacy.

—Jennaya Robison
Cantate Domino
Josef Swider (1930–2014)
Sing to the Lord a new song. Alleluia.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world.
Have mercy on us.
O God, we praise you. Amen.

In This Place
Will Todd (b. 1970)
In this place I have been made new;
I have been gifted jewels beyond price.
In this place greater dreams are given.
I am made everlasting.
In this place I am light,
In this place, in Your sight
I am made everlasting.
In Your love, starting and ending;
I will be carried softly to heaven.
In Your love I am given beauty.
I am made everlasting.
You give the strength for me to hold,
You are the hope that shines like gold.
In this place I am new.
In this place I am true.
I will fly with angels to this place
And be made everlasting.

Ihr aber seid nicht fleischlich
J.S. Bach (1685–1750)
from Jesu, meine Freude BWV 227
Sung in German
Text based on Romans 8:9
You, however, are not of the flesh, but rather of the Spirit, since the Spirit of God lives otherwise in you. Anyone, however, who does not have Christ’s Spirit, is not His.

My God Is a Rock
Traditional African American Spiritual, arr. Stacey Gibbs
Text based on Isaiah 32: 1–4
The prophet Isaiah describes the “king of righteousness” and the “princes” who will “rule in justice.” “Each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a shelter from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.”

COLLEGIATE CHORALE
The Luther College Collegiate Chorale is composed of select junior and senior singers. The choir, featuring 90 mixed voices, performs sacred and secular choral works of a variety of periods and styles. Collegiate Chorale sings at chapter and Sunday worship services on campus, performs in the college’s annual Christmas at Luther celebration, and tours annually in the spring.
Collegiate Chorale has collaborated with Nordic Choir,
Cathedral Choir, and the Luther College Symphony Orchestra to perform major choral/orchestral works such as Brahms’s A German Requiem, Haydn’s Lord Nelson Mass, Handel’s Messiah, and the premiere of Luther Mass by Stephen Paulus. In October 2017, Cathedral joined Collegiate Chorale and Concert Band to premiere a collage cantata composed by Luther alumni and students to commemorate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation.
Collegiate Chorale has performed in concert with the American Symphony Orchestra at Lincoln Center’s Avery
Fisher Hall, New York City, and with the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) and La Crosse (Wisconsin) symphony orchestras. The choir performed at a regional American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) convention in 2016 and at the national

Bach (Again) Come Sweet Death
J.S. Bach (1685–1750)
arr. Rhonda Sandberg
Based on “Komm, süsser Tod” BWV 478
Come, sweet death. Come, soothing rest.
Come and lead me homeward!
I am weary of life and longing.
Come, I am waiting for thee, come now and set me free!
My eyes are gently closing now, come blessed rest!

And I Saw a New Heaven
Edgar Bainton (1880–1956)
Text based on Revelation 21:1–4
And I saw a new heaven and a new earth;
for the first heaven and first earth had passed away,
and there was no more sea.
And I John saw the holy city,
new Jerusalem coming down from God out of heaven,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband;
and I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying:
“Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men,
and he will dwell with them and be their God;
and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying,
neither shall there be any more pain,
for the former things are passed away.”

Go, Tell It!
arr. Ken Berg
Traditional African American Spiritual
Go, tell it on the mountain
Over the hills and everywhere
Go, tell it on the mountain
Our Jesus Christ is born.

When I was a seeker
I sought both night and day
I asked the Lord to help me
And he showed me the way.
Go, tell it on the mountain
Over the hills and everywhere
Go, tell it on the mountain
Our Jesus Christ is born.

He made me a watchman
Upon a city wall
And if I am a Christian
I am the least of all.
Go, tell it on the mountain
Over the hills and everywhere
Go, tell it on the mountain
Our Jesus Christ is born.
Paean
Craig Phillips (b. 1961)

INTERMISSION

San’bonani—Nda Wana
ar. Michael Barrett Traditional South African Sung in IsiZulu and Venda

Hello, everybody, are you well? I found the children playing while the birds were singing by the river as they resisted sleep.

Lord, Thou Hast Been Our Refuge
Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958)
Text from Psalm 90:1–6, 9

Lord, Thou hast been our refuge, from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth or ever the earth and the world were made, Thou art God, from everlasting, and world without end.

Thou turnest man to destruction: again Thou sayest, come again, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday, seeing that is past as a watch in the night. As soon as Thou scatt’rest them, they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly like the grass. In the morning it is green, and growtheth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up and withered. For when Thou art angry, all our days are gone; we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

Lord, Thou hast been our refuge . . .

Lamb of God
O Lamm Gottes Unschulding, German Chorale 1540
ar. F. Melius Christiansen

Lamb of God most holy! Who on the cross didst suffer. Patient, still, and lowly, Thyself to scorn didst offer; Our sins by Thee were taken, Or hope had us forsaken: Have mercy on us, O Jesu!
And So I Go On

Jake Runestad (b. 1986)

When Germán Aguilar passed away unexpectedly in the summer of 2014, it was a huge loss to our world. Germán had a warm, kind personality and a love for life, teaching, and the people around him—especially his fiancé, Jon Talberg. After Germán's death, Jon was cleaning out Germán's wallet and found that the only card inside was mine. I had given it to Germán when we met in January of 2014. Jon soon contacted me and asked if I would write a piece of music in memory of Germán; I was honored to do so.

I hope this music captures an element of Germán's life as an amazing man and lover of music. Also, I hope the music will serve as a form of healing to those who experience it and who continue to suffer from this immense loss. Todd Boss, the poet who wrote an original text for this work, beautifully captured the message we want to leave with you: "And so I go on, always, wherever you are, my lovely one." —Jake Runestad

My lovely one though you are gone
taken from me
I cannot leave you
I am not free
I burn in snow
and thirst in rain
there is no sea
that can drown my pain
but you would want me to live
and love again
and so I go on always wherever you are lovely one

My lovely one
I am gone
taken from you
mine in your suffering
mine in your joy
my snow will kiss you pouring down my love
there is no sea
that can drown your pain
I want you to live
and love again
and so I do on always wherever you are lovely one

Tour Program

Chichester Psalms, movement 3
Leonard Bernstein (1918–1990)
Sung in Hebrew
Text based on Psalms 131 and 133

Lord, Lord, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty, neither do I exercise myself in great matters or in things too wonderful for me to understand. Surely I have calmed and quieted myself.

As a child that is weaned of his mother, my soul is even as a weaned child. Let Israel hope in the Lord From henceforth and forever. Behold how good, and how pleasant it is, for brethren to dwell together in unity.

Glory
from Selma, John Stephens, Lonnie Lynn
arr. Eugene Rogers
adapt. Elliot Douma, Luther College Class of 2019
As performed by John Legend and Common

One day when the glory comes
It will be ours, it will be ours
Oh one day when the war is won
We will be sure, we will be sure
Oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)

Hands to the Heavens, no man, no weapon
Formed against, yes glory is destined
Every day women and men become legends
Sins that go against our skin become blessings
The movement is a rhythm to us
Freedom is like religion to us
Justice is juxtapositionin’ us
Justice for all just ain’t specific enough
One son died, his spirit is revisitin’ us
Truant livin’ livin’ in us, resistance is us
That’s why Rosa sat on the bus
That’s why we walk through Ferguson with our hands up
When it go down we woman and man up
They say, “Stay down”, and we stand up Shots, we on the ground, the camera panned up
King pointed to the mountain top and we ran up

One day when the glory comes
It will be ours, it will be ours
Oh one day when the war is won
We will be sure, we will be sure
Oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)

Now the war is not over, victory isn’t won
And we’ll fight on to the finish, then when it’s all done
We’ll cry glory, oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)
We’ll cry glory, oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)
Selma’s now for every man, woman and child
Even Jesus got his crown in front of a crowd
They marched with the torch, we gon’ run with it now
Never look back, we done gone hundreds of miles
From dark roads he rose, to become a hero
Facin’ the league of justice, his power was the people
Enemy is lethal, a king became regal
Saw the face of Jim Crow under a bald eagle
The biggest weapon is to stay peaceful
We sing, our music is the cuts that we bleed through Somewhere in the dream we had an epiphany
Now we right the wrongs in history
No one can win the war individually
It takes the wisdom of the elders and young people’s energy
Welcome to the story we call victory
The comin’ of the Lord, my eyes have seen the glory
One day when the glory comes
It will be ours, it will be ours
Oh one day when the war is won
We will be sure, we will be sure
Oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh glory (Glory, glory)
Hey (Glory, glory)
When the war is won, when it’s all said and done
We’ll cry glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)

Ain’t No Grave Is Gonna Hold My Body Down
Traditional African American Spiritual
Arr. Paul Caldwell and Sean Ivory

To Luther
Gustav B. Wollan, Luther College Class of 1897
To Luther let us sing, a joyous song of love and cheer
May our voices loudly ring, in praise of Alma Mater dear.

Chorus:
May our thought to thee oft turn, when we’re absent far away
May we then sincerely yearn, to return to thee some day.
(Hum chorus)

Music at Luther

Martin Luther—our namesake—believed music to be “one of the most magnificent and delightful presents God has given us.” For more than 130 years, Luther students have been sharing this marvelous gift with audiences across the country and around the globe.

Music is much more than a gift, though. It’s an integral part of the community of faith and the community of learning on campus. The arts are fundamental to the liberal arts experience at Luther; they help to define what it means to be human. Here, creative scholarship, personal growth, worship, and social relations merge to create an understanding of the wholeness of life.

The vibrancy of Luther’s music program is rooted in a balance between the academic rigor of our acclaimed music major and the numerous opportunities for study and performance by students from all disciplines across campus. The Luther campus is alive with the sounds of five choirs, three bands, three orchestras, two jazz bands, and nearly 800 student musicians. Our students participate in large ensembles, faculty-coached chamber groups, private lessons, and master classes. Nearly 275 music majors study music theory/ear training, history, education, jazz, composition, church music, and performance.

Music Scholarships

Luther offers a wide variety of scholarships and awards based on musical talent, regardless of chosen major. Music scholarships are added to any merit scholarship, and most are renewable up to four years.

Students are welcome to schedule an audition during an individual weekday visit to campus or during selected group visit events, for example a Dorian Festival or Luther’s popular Christmas at Luther visit event. The college also hosts an off-site audition day in the Twin Cities.

To audition for a music scholarship, prospective students need to arrange an audition through Luther’s Admissions Department prior to an annual March deadline. Visit auditiondates.luther.edu for specific information.

Auditions have a range of requirements. For specific details and more information about music scholarships, see audition.luther.edu or contact Jana Vorvick, coordinator of music recruitment, at (563) 387-1426 or vorvja01@luther.edu.

Luther Alumni Ambassador Program

Alumni of Luther College can play a direct role in recruiting the next generation of Luther students by referring students who would be a good match for Luther College. Every student you refer as a Alumni Ambassador will receive a $1,000 scholarship (in your name!) each year, for four years, should that student decide to enroll. Your participation in our program will have a direct financial impact on a student’s experience at Luther.

You may refer family members,* neighbors, friends, children of coworkers, members of your religious community, and others. There is no limit on the number of students you can refer, but referral forms for high school seniors will be accepted only until December 1 each year. We do request that you help actively recruit referred students by offering support throughout their college search process, recommending campus visits and encouraging them to submit an application.

To help recruit the next generation of Luther students, see luther.edu/ambassadors or email ambassadors@luther.edu.

*Children of Luther alumni will receive the Legacy Scholarship ($4,000 total over four years) but may also receive the Alumni Referral Scholarship if referred by someone other than a parent(s).
Since 1861, Luther College has engaged in a classic residential, liberal arts education. We believe that providing a rigorous academic program in the context of a faith tradition prepares students for more than successful careers. Luther graduates have a sense of a larger purpose—a sense that the “good life” is one in which they use their talents and knowledge in service to others.

Luther’s liberal arts curriculum begins with 180 full-time faculty who come from the strongest graduate programs in the United States and around the world. They reflect the college’s ideals as a Phi Beta Kappa institution—excellence every day in the liberal arts. With expertise ranging from collaborative filtering (in computer science) to a fresh interpretation of St. Patrick from Latin (in classics) to biodegradable polyesters (in chemistry), our faculty feel called to be at a place where the attention is on undergraduates. The college’s 11:1 student-faculty ratio makes it possible for professors to know their students well and become intellectual mentors and guides. And because nearly all faculty live within five miles of campus, they make a life here, along with students and colleagues. This creates a strong sense of community and shared purpose on the Luther campus.

The sense of community at Luther is enhanced by the college’s beautiful location. Nestled in the bluff country of northeast Iowa, Luther is a strong and vibrant residential community purposely set apart. Our 1,000-acre campus includes frontage on the Upper Iowa River, recreation trails, outdoor research sites, and well-designed facilities dedicated to teaching and learning. In recent years, the college has added a $20 million science laboratories center that has expanded opportunities for collaborative research and learning and a state-of-the-art aquatic center.

Luther has a strong tradition of engaged and experiential learning, most notably in our study-abroad programs. More than two-thirds of Luther students will study abroad before graduating, placing us among the top baccalaureate colleges nationally in the number of students studying abroad each year. Many students travel with Luther faculty during the college’s January Term, a monthlong intensive course of study with programs on five continents.

We believe music is central to a liberal arts education. As one of our conductors puts it, “Musical expression—artistic expression—answers some of our most fundamental needs as human beings: the need to be creative, the need for self-fulfillment, and the need for self-expression, beauty, and meaningful existence.”

In the end, a Luther education is about transformation. We put our faith in a strong liberal arts education, rich cocurricular programs, and the beauty found in place and community. Students are transformed by their four-year journey at Luther and leave here ready to make their mark in the world.
