Call for Papers

The 17th Annual
Midwestern Undergraduate Philosophy Conference

Creighton University
April 10-11, 2015

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Erin Stackle of Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, California speaking on The Virtue of Friendship.

Submission Guidelines: Submissions from all interested undergraduates on any philosophical topic are welcome. Please limit submissions to one paper per student. Papers should be a maximum of 30 minutes reading time (approximately 10-12 pages double-spaced) and should include a separate cover sheet with the author’s name, address, school, email address, telephone number, and an abstract of about 150 words. All submissions should be suitable for blind review, so no identifying marks are to appear anywhere in the body of the paper itself. Papers will be blind reviewed by the officers of the Creighton University chapter of Phi Sigma Tau. Selected speakers will be notified on a rolling basis.

Deadline for receipt of papers: Saturday, March 1st.
If you use postal mail, please be sure to mail your submission well in advance.

Submissions: Papers may be submitted either electronically or via US mail. Please e-mail electronic submissions in an attached file using MS Word format to shainnahayes@creighton.edu. Submissions made through postal mail should include a disk copy (in MS Word format) in addition to a paper copy and should be addressed to: Shainna Hayes Phi Sigma Tau President, Philosophy Department - DHHC 104, Creighton University, 2500 California Plaza, Omaha, NE 68178.

Location: The conference will be held on the campus of Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska.

For further information (including help with accommodations): Please contact Shainna Hayes by e-mail at shainnahayes@creighton.edu.
