The average annual class load for full-time students is 33 semester hours. This includes courses taken during the fall semester, January term, and spring semester. Only students with a grade point average of 3.00 should consider a class load in excess of 17 hours for a semester. Registrar’s office review is based on academic load only. Students must consult with the Financial Services office to inquire about extra hours charges.

Extra hours charges are assessed in the spring semester for each hour of credit attempted in excess of 36 hours for the year (Fall + January + Spring). Please refer to the Financial Services website at: https://www.luther.edu/financial-services/student/ for additional information about the extra credit hours calculation. Applied music lessons, class music or piano lessons, vocal coaching, INTS 130, the first HES 100 (Wellness), and the first HES 110 skills course are not included in the 36 hours.

If approval is granted, course(s) will be added to your schedule for the indicated term once your registration date/time have passed. Approval for academic credit overload does not guarantee registration in the event a class is full or a registration hold exists. Students will be contacted at their luther.edu email account if the overload is not approved or cannot be processed.
