

Academic Concentration:

Elementary Majors who choose a “Special Endorsement” must also have an academic concentration.

Options:

- (1) 12 hours in one subject area outside of the Education Department. There are no restrictions on the subject area.
- (2) 12 hours in Social Science coursework which may include anthropology, business, communication studies, computer science, economics, history, international studies, political science, psychology, social work or sociology. This is referred to as a Social Science General Concentration.
- (3) 12 hours in any science courses which includes biology, chemistry, physics and science department courses. This is referred to as a Science General Concentration.

Please note that an Academic Concentration is not listed on a teaching license.
